

STOPOVER HOUSING

With a long expanse down the eastern side of Main Street and plenty of small suites for those visiting Arcadia, the Stopover Housing sits as the final destination in the Round Barn complex.

The fieldstone walls and red oak structure is continued across the building, while the west and east facades are opened up to create a strong connection across Main Street.

